Dear Mr. Mageza,

I owe you a huge apology, and plead guilty without any mitigating factors.

You gave me the manuscript of "The Bethal Trial" some time ago, and I paged through it quickly, with a view to reading it carefully later.

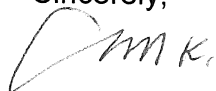

However, it was only this morning that I discovered the covering letter which stated that the book was to go into print on 28th April!! By now it must already be in the stores.

At this late stage, all I can say is "congratulations" for a valuable addition to the increasing number of publications on the struggle years. I must confess that I was not even aware of this Bethal Trial until I saw your manuscript!

I would have liked to make some comments, but I'm afraid this may just delay this letter. Let's get together some time when it is mutually convenient. My details are above.

My apologies once more. With best wishes for success.

Sincerely,

A.M.KATHRADA

Dear Mr. Msimang,

My apologies for intruding on your time, but I'm writing to seek your assistance and guidance.

For some time I have been in contact with two cousins from Congo. They have both been on temporary permits, which are due to expire. Their employers have informed them that unless they obtain I.D.'s or unrestricted work-permits, they will be discharged.

Their details are:-

- 1) Mr.Kenneth Mwenze,
File No. PTA Code 342190908
- 2) Mr. Perrego Lukumbia,
File Number:- Jhb Code 2580508.

I have come to know them personally; they are decent, honest, hardworking,
responsible and respectable gentlemen.

Mr.Mwenze is the son of a former Cabinet Minister. Their family home is near a border area, and is exposed to rebel attacks. In fact Mr. Mwenze returned from a recent visit home, and described to me a rebel-attack on their house while he was there. He showed me healing wounds which were still visible. He also showed me photos of their ransacked house.

My fear is, if they lose their employment and consequent repatriation, they will once again be exposed to grave dangers –even death.

I will appreciate it very much if they are granted permission enabling them to remain in South Africa, and save their employment.

Your assistance will be appreciated.

Regards.

Subject: LETTER TO ANAND SHARMA

Hi Kathy,

Here's a draft note. Please let me have your thoughts asap. I'd like to get it out today.

Had dinner with Jerry Inzerillo who wanted me to make sure that you are aware that this is his and Sol Kerzner's event, as he has just heard back that you and Barbara will not be attending the launch on the 2nd April. As you know, Madiba's going to be there on the 3rd, and he wanted you to join that also. Please let me know.

Regards,
ANANT SINGH

Dear Anand,

I hope you are well.

Thanks to Mrs Gandhi, you, and the government of India for your generous contribution to Kathy's Foundation.

As you know, August 21st will be Kathy's 80th birthday. This is indeed a special occasion especially due to the fact that he spent 9269 days in prison, a third of his life. We are trying to do a few events around this, both to celebrate and to fundraise for his Foundation. I have had discussions with Kathy and we would love to explore the possibility of Mrs Gandhi being a keynote speaker for this momentous occasion.

Currently the plan is to host the event on the 14th or 15th August, but of course this date could be flexible if there is a more suitable date for Mrs Gandhi.

Additionally, an invite will be sent to you as we would be honoured to have you her for these celebrations.

I look forward to hearing from you soon.

All the best and regards,
ANANT SINGH

P.S. I have just completed a documentary on Madiba and also one on Obama. Please could I have your address so that I could send these to you.

where is it? A M Kathrada [duplicate of evidence by Accused No.5 - Kathrada]

Court proceedings started on 26 November 1963. Counsel for the Defence asked for a postponement. The trial judge [Mr Justice Quartus de Wet, Judge President of the Transvaal] refused the application and ordered the trial to start on the following day, 27 November 1963 at 10am.

There is no record of any evidence led on 27 November; indeed there appears to be a week's evidence missing. This can be deduced from the fact that the first witness called on 4 December, Joseph Mashifane, refers to his father Thomas Mashifane as a "former witness" who worked on the farm at Rivonia. Joseph's evidence is recorded at length but there is no word about Thomas Mashifane and what he had to tell the Court. [He said he was severely assaulted by police]

The papers were bound carelessly. An index at the beginning of MS.385/2 records a list of witnesses and the date on which each witness gave evidence. This list is most misleading. A supplementary list gives some of the names which should have appeared on the first list but is also inaccurate. One of the names on the second list is that of the policeman Donald John Card who gave evidence on 26 January 1964; his evidence is not recorded in MS.385/2 or anywhere else.

In his autobiography "Long walk to freedom" [MacDonald Purnell, 1994] Mandela says that he spent a fortnight drafting the address. It took some four hours to deliver in Court but only portions of the statement are quoted in the autobiography. Historically it is a most important document. It is more than a life story; it is the confession of a man's political beliefs and ideals and an explanation for his conduct after he went underground. The full statement runs to 50 pages and is recorded in MS.385/6 [AA1 of the Defence case].

MS.385/10-MS.385/13. 4 volumes containing Dr Yutar's concluding address to the Court. No addresses by Defending Counsel are recorded.

The names of many witnesses appear in the State's concluding address to the Court. It may well be that the majority of these witnesses gave formal evidence only as their evidence is not on record. There is one witness however, English Tolo Mashiloane, who may be important as he is referred to both in Dr Yutar's final address and in the Court's judgment. Apart from the fact that he is described as a herbalist not a word of his evidence appears anywhere in the record.

MS.385/14. Alphabetical list of exhibits and some exhibits

MS.385/15. Exhibit B. Photograph album of Rivonia, Trevallyn and Mountain View.

MS.385/16. Photograph album of Lilliesleaf, Trevallyn and Mountain View.

MS.385/17. Trevallyn exhibits.

MS.385/18. Photograph album of accused and conspirators

MS.385/19-MS.385-21. 3 volumes of Rivonia Exhibits [documentary]

The documentary exhibits are all copies; there are no originals. There are references to a number of text books, for example, Che Guevarra on the Cuban Revolution, and to pocket books, but none of these is included in the papers.

There are 3 volumes of Rivonia exhibits totalling no less than 740 pages, which we think would be of great assistance to a researcher - particularly documents like Mandela's Diary of his African Tour - TS, 25 pages [Ex.R.17] and "How to be a good Communist" - TS, 21 pages [Ex.R.21], with a note in the Index that the originals were in Mandela's handwriting.

MS.385/22. Judgment in Rivonia Case and sentence of the Court.

The most interesting document in the collection is undoubtedly the Judge President's 70 page judgment analysing the evidence given at the trial. The sentence is a brief 3 pages but obviously caused the Judge great concern as to whether or not he should impose a death sentence: In the event he imposed one of life imprisonment on each of the convicted accused.

MS.385/23-MS.385/28. 6 volumes of statements to the Police on which the Prosecution based its case. MS.385/23-MS.385/28 contain statements by State witnesses to the Police. These statements do not form part of the trial record as

Dear Mr. Kathrada,

Thank you so much for your speedy and lengthy email. It is very helpful indeed.

I just spoke with the trip planner and she said we can do Saturday June 6, 2009! So we will follow your instructions below and set everything up. I am really pleased that you and your friend will be able to accompany us.

On the matter of coming to Chicago in a few weeks, I would love to see you and have you possibly come to my house for dinner. Would you be up for that? I could make it as small or big as you saw fit.

So put it in your calendar that we have a date for Saturday June 6th on the Island.

And, I will talk to your Chicago host about steeling you away for a day.

Sincerely,

Lisa Brock

Subject: Robben Island

Dear Dr. Brock,

Thank you for your letter. Is it possible for you to fit in Robben Island on Saturday, 6th June; or Friday 5th June. My preference is Saturday 6th. If these days are not suitable I can try to arrange with a friend to accompany you.

I assume you've been advised about the procedure for a visit to the Island? If not, let me suggest:-

You have the option of joining the normal group of visitors, in which case your group will be mixed with the rest of the visitors. There will then not be necessary for me to accompany you. You will of course be having the guides who are employed by the Island, some of whom are former prisoners. You won't be missing anything, except you don't have the choice of spending more time on your particular interests.

The other option is to arrange a special tour. The advantage is you will be separated from the rest of the visitors (at times between 150 to 200). You can then spend more time on any part of the program that you have a special interest in. At a little extra cost you can hire a special vehicle. My friend or I can accompany you.

Any option that you choose will require you to make a booking beforehand.

For a Special visit you should send an e-mail to the Head of the Special Events Unit.
The e-mail address is:- RabiaD@robben-island.org.za.
Please CC this to shanonc@robben-island.org.za

(In fact if you choose to go on the normal tour with the other visitors, you can ask any one of the above ladies to re-direct your request, or advise you of the procedure).

For the Special Tour, I suggest:-

- 1) You book with the first ferry, departing from the Mandela Gateway at 9 a.m.
- 2) Book special transport for the Island.
- 3) Inform them that I will be guiding the group; therefore there will be no need for a guide.

As a matter of interest, I will be leaving Johannesburg for Chicago on 19th May, and will be there till the 29th May. My hosts are the Zakat Foundation, which is a Moslem charity organisation. During my stay there, I believe I will be speaking at a couple of meetings, including a couple at universities, and the media. But I don't have the details.

If you are interested you may contact my hosts; the email address is:-
halil@thezakat.org

Incidentally I met our friend Prexy, unexpectedly at the Mandela Foundation, a couple of weeks ago. We had last met a couple of years ago in Chicago. It was nice to meet him again.

MY apologies for the lengthy e-mail,

Best wishes,

From,
Kathrada.

Dear Ahmed

I hope you are well.

At the outset let me say that I have huge respect for you and the role you have played in the ANC and the liberation struggle of this country.

As I indicated on the phone I am writing the authorised political biography of former president, Kgalema Motlanthe (by the time you get this he will probably be the deputy president under president Zuma).

I will highly appreciate it if I could interview you. Your name appears on a list he gave me of people he would like me to interview. Because it is an authorised biography it was necessary to ask him to suggest the names of people I should interview, though I have my own list too. Your name appears on both lists..

Can you kindly suggest a date/time/place for an interview. I will need about 2 hours. Thereafter if there are further questions I will email you.

Regards

Dr. Ebrahim Harvey

Original message

25 April 2007

Dear Mr Kathrada

As per our phone conversation just now, we are planning a drama here in the UK about the secret talks that took place in various locations across England between the ANC in exile and representatives of the Afrikaner government in the late 1980s. Our film is based on the book 'The Fall of Apartheid' by Robert Harvey, which is based on the accounts of Michael Young.

The screenwriter Paula Milne and Producer David Aukin are coming to SA to meet with President Mbeki next week, and would be delighted to meet with you if you are able. The secret talks were organised by Oliver Tambo and Michael Young and took place at the same time as Mandela was in Pollsmoor, where I believe you were also incarcerated.

If you could possibly find the time to meet with Paula and David, that would be fantastic. Are you based in Cape Town or Johannesburg? They will be in CT from Tuesday the 1st until Thursday evening, when they fly to Jo'burg for a few days, returning to London on the evening of the 7th May.

I do hope to hear from you soon.

Best wishes,

4/28/2007

Ahmed Kathrada

Dear Mr Kathrada

I am sorry to hear that. Paula and David were hoping to meet as many people as possible to further their research of this key point in South African history. They have both read a multitude of books on the subject, but there is nothing like chatting to people face to face to discover the nuances and differing opinions involved. It is a shame they will not be able to hear your thoughts, whatever form they may have taken.

Thanks for your time.

Best wishes,

Catherine

Dear Ms. Milne,

Thank you for taking the trouble to phone me, as well as for the e-mail. I'm afraid, for good reasons, I believe I should not involve myself in this enterprise.

Sincerely,

Kathrada.

Subject: Invitation to Screening - My Brother's Keeper

Dear Patron

The Trauma Centre for Survivors of Violence and Torture, in partnership with the International Rehabilitation Council for Torture Victims (IRCT) invites you to the screening of "My Brother's Keeper" – a brand-new documentary film that examines the phenomenon of torture anno 2008 - on the occasion of the 60th anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights on 10 December.

Taking its audience to places as diverse as Zimbabwe, Moldova, Guantanamo and Denmark, the film follows the UN Special Rapporteur on Torture, Professor Manfred Nowak, for one year. From this unique angle, the film portrays the phenomenon of torture in the world today, the plight of people who have been subjected to torture, and the work of those who support them in their quest to rebuild their lives.

Behind the film is well-known Danish filmmaker Jørgen Flindt Pedersen – the director behind several documentaries on human rights-related issues, including "Your Neighbour's Son" (1981) and "A family at War" (2004).

Please see the attached invitation. The programme will be sent to you shortly.
 Please RSVP.

Subject: Re: Palestine response

Dear Achmat,

With respect, my first reaction is, we should rather have kept quiet, instead of the meaningless, heartless advice. To repeat the message of 2003, in the face of the mass Nazi-like killing of children, women, and civilians and to equate the Palestinian struggle with the barbaric invaders is mind-boggling. Do we really want Madiba, in the winter of his life to wipe out from his memory the Palestinian solidarity with our struggle, while Israel was assisting the apartheid rulers to make the nuclear bomb?

Silence would be much better than disappointing and confusing millions of people throughout the world. And the tired repetition of the first paragraph is exactly what the media and COPE used in the weak, January-8th message. It is that paragraph which prompted the media to splash a bold front-page headline:- "Enough is Enough" Mandela tells the ANC. (Fortunately Zindzi saved the situation somewhat, by unequivocally adding what she and many know what her father's real views are.)

I must confess I feel most uncomfortable with such pronouncements, and I frequently agonize over my position.

I can just imagine the Jewish Board of Deputies and the Zionist organisations jumping with joy over such statements, while millions of Madiba's admirers will be silently weeping. (Oh yes I forgot, we are going to hide it from the public. Just as well; it will hopefully minimize any damage)

I will of course continue to hold my views, privately and publicly. Rest assured that I will never claim to be speaking on behalf of the Foundation or Madiba. However, what I cannot control is when I speak at meetings, and also when introduced to individuals and groups, people almost invariably tend to refer to our close association for decades. That is history, publicly stated by Madiba himself in Long Walk, and numerous other places. I cannot help it if people conclude that I'm expressing the same views as Madiba's.

Incidentally, I believe Madiba has sent a message of congratulations to President Obama. I haven't seen it, but I fully agree. I'm just wondering how to reconcile this with the first paragraph? And when reading it, I wonder what are supporters of the Palestinian cause to make of the fact that President Obama expressed the view himself, and instructed his Envoy not to talk to Hamas. And this while Mitchell is on a "Peace Mission".

Yes, I'm writing in anger. It is past midnight. I'm going to wait before sending it, just in case I have second thoughts. NOT about the contents, but about sending it.

Subject: Palestine response

Dear Trustees,

In response to dozens of messages to Madiba, calling on him to make a statement on the Israel/Palestine issue, we have sent the response below with the attached transcript, to those who have written to him. This will NOT go onto our website nor will it be issued to the media. We hope that this will go some way towards quelling continued demands for Madiba to make a statement.

Regards
 Achmat

We refer to your recent communication to Mister Mandela regarding the situation in Palestine. As you know, he has now retired and no longer makes pronouncements on this and many other dire crises that afflict the world. He has repeatedly asked a younger generation to relieve people like him of the burden of leadership in seeking to redress human suffering throughout the world.

However, his views on the situation in the Middle East are well known. We attach, as an example, the transcript of a recorded message that he sent in 2003 on the occasion of the signing of the "Geneva Initiative" and the "People's Voice" petition accompanying it.

To quote from that message:

"One of the most important lessons I learnt in my life of struggle for freedom and peace is that in any conflict there comes a point when neither side can claim to be right and the other wrong, no matter how much that might have been the case at the start of a conflict.

You have long passed that point.

You, the people of Israel and Palestine, must now give the lead to your leaders; taking your societies beyond hatred and fear; recognising that achieving the peaceful co-existence between a sovereign and viable state of Palestine, and a safe and secure state of Israel is your responsibility. "

The Nelson Mandela Foundation wishes to express its solidarity with all those, especially the children, who have suffered so needlessly in this conflict. We too fervently hope that people of goodwill on both sides will prevail and that meaningful dialogue will soon commence in order for a lasting solution to be found.
