Dearest Kathy ~

My heart remains full of love, inspiration, gratitude and fire after our visit to South Africa! Each day was my favorite day because of the amazing experiences offered to us. Your guidance through Robben Island with stories of strength and brilliance will never leave my mind. When I opened the Mandela book you and Barbara gave our family, I began to cry. All of you "rascal terrorists" are my lifelong heroes. You suffered and sacrificed for the highest good of all people. I am humbled and yet so exalted by your brilliance.

Being in South Africa has changed my soul. America has become a political coward and a government of clerics. I look to you, to South Africa, to Madiba, to Tutu, to teach us how to be integral human beings.

Thank you for every precious moment in your presence.

I remain your grateful friend...

Love,

Eleberich Santana
