In this troubled world
it's refreshing to find Someone who still has
the time to be kind,
Someone who still has
the faith to believe
That the more you give
the more you receive,
Someone who's ready

Dear Mr Kathrada,

Thank you so much for taking the time to give us a tour of the Lifesleaf Museum.

It has been an inspirational and informative afternoon, and I'm sure that our members will go home with lots of food for thought and a new perspective on South Africa's heritage and socio-political past.

On behalf of the NSBA and all participants I would like to extend a heartfelt THANK YOU!

Dearest Kathy,

How time flies. It was like yesterday that I first met you and I fell in love with you, your spirit and your humility.

You have been a role model and an inspiration to me and so many others all around the world. I cannot imagine a South Africa without you and others of your generation and the exceptional group of '64.

Thank you for your untiring commitment.

Thank you for your friendship,

Thank you for always being there for the less fortunate people of SA.

Thank you for being you, always.

DEAR KATHY,

Thank you very much for the special issue of the MANSFIELD 80th birthday celebrations which I read with great interest. (I should say we as you will recall NADIA was one of the youngest marchers for Nelson's 70th birthday from GLASGOW to LONDON. We as a family raised over £3000 in sponsorship for the team)

Last week we attended the memorial for TREV THE REV. The Abbey was packed with over 2000 people. It was a moving & wonderful tribute to a man who did so much for. I'm he did not spend his last few years in S.A.

MARY BEESON was able to be present, but sadly not so for Freda Lerson who is quite weak & ailing.

Freda was mindful of Nelson's 80th birthday. She asked me to get a greeting card (one of Lewis ferry whilst sketching) this I sent to our H.C. with a request to pass on to Nelson. I did tell her that Nelson will be the recipient of thousands of cards & hopefully he will get hers. She just wanted to be part of a great event.

Certainly I will show David & stress the publication - I already informed on the phone about it.

Saw Vella & many old hands of the struggle at the Abbey. Am glad you have sent a communication over if it is only the 2nd in 8 years!

Adelaide will be visiting SA in Sept. She has had some bereavement in the family. Sube & son came to dinner last week. Rides to BARNES, Wilfred & Pat.
