Inside, there is a smaller, roughly circular structure representing the nucleus, which contains a small dot (nucleolus). Surrounding the nucleus are several wavy, parallel lines representing the rough endoplasmic reticulum.

IMPORTANT: ARRANGEMENTS AND ACCREDITATION PROCEDURE FOR THE PRESIDENTIAL INAUGURATION

Dear Guest

The Inauguration of the President-elect will take place on the 9th of May 2009 at the Union Buildings in the Amphitheatre. All Guests are expected to be seated by 09:30 at the latest for the Arrival of the Heads of State and Government.

The Investiture Ceremony will commence at 11:00 followed by an official Luncheon at the Bryntirion Estate.

GUEST ACCREDITATION

DOMESTIC GUESTS

All locally based guests (domestic guests) will be required to come for live accreditation. Live accreditation will commence on the 4th to the 8th of May 2009 at the Pretoria Art Museum (Cnr Schoeman and Wessels Streets) from 08h00am to 18h00pm. They are required to bring their passports, South African identity document or a valid RSA drivers license together with the original letter of invitation. On arrival at the accreditation centre guests who do not have their original letter of invitation, should collect their original letter of invitation at the Protocol desk, inside the accreditation centre.

With the original letter of invitation in their possession, guests must approach the front desk whereupon their invitation letter will be retained by the accreditation officials. They will then be issued with a number that they must present at the accreditation booths. Details will be confirmed and a photo of the guest will be captured. The accreditation pass will then be produced.

In the event that a guest is invited with a partner who may be coming for accreditation at a later stage, the accreditation centre will delete the guest from the invitation and leave the partner on the invite. The invitation will be collected once the partner has been accredited. No copies of invitations will be accepted.

For those guests invited without partners please note that the accreditation will only be for the guest as per invite.

In the case of those guests who are assigned a close protector from the South African Police Service (SAPS) the above process can be carried out by the close protector on behalf of the guest. The guest would then furnish the close protector with his/her South African identity document or valid RSA drivers license or passport and invitation. The invitation will then be retained by the accreditation centre.

Gourmet fare for presidential feast

Champagne and fluffy wraps planned for Jacob Zuma's inauguration

EXPENSIVE Champagne, chocolate potjies and fluffy blankets will warm up the 5000 dignitaries invited to the inauguration of South Africa's fourth democratically elected president at the Union Buildings on Saturday.

- DA slams R75m for inauguration

Jacob Zuma's inauguration, at a budget of R75-million, is being arranged by the office of the presidency and the entertainment organised by the department of arts and culture.

The Times has learnt that the VIPs — who include heads of state from around the world, as well as representatives of international organisations such as the UN and the African Union — will be entertained by a 40-piece orchestra and the Grammy Award-winning Soweto Gospel Choir.

The menu for the five-course state lunch in the Union Buildings amphitheatre will include a starter of "refreshing" cucumber topped with smoked snoek pate and lemon caviar.

The entree is Dullstroom trout wrapped in lettuce, citrus segments, and lemon aioli and dill, served with an avocado salsa.

After a prickly-pear and fresh-ginger sorbet, a main course of a trio of meats — peppered beef fillet, lamb cutlet and chicken breast stuffed with Peppadew — will be served with African dumplings, and thyme and berry sauce, as well as spinach and steamed root vegetables.

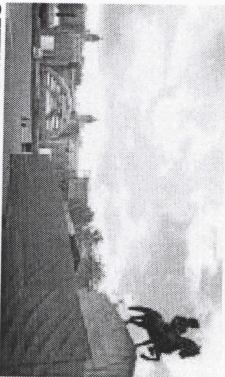

Dessert will be mini malva pudding served with a three-legged chocolate potjie filled with tropical fruit, accompanied by slices of milk tart, finished off with a berry compote.

The guests will wash it all down with South African Shiraz and Chardonnay wines, but it has been left to the French to produce the Champagne — Dom Perignon, which costs R1,700 a bottle in liquor stores — as opposed to cheaper, locally produced sparkling wine.

While the guests enjoy their lunch, they will be entertained by the Johannesburg Philharmonic Orchestra, which will play works by Bach, Vivaldi and local composer Gideon Nxumalo.

Thabo Masebe, a government spokesman, said: "We will also provide blankets for the dignitaries as proceedings for the day start early and it's quite cold."

Thousands of people taken to the event by bus will be entertained on the Union Buildings lawns by popular local artists, including Gang of Instrumentals, Karen Zoid, The Parlotones, Jozi, Mkhonto Dancers, the Indian Navara dance group and YFM's DJ Oskido.

The party will continue after Zuma has been inaugurated at a "cultural evening" at Montecasino, in Fourways, north of Johannesburg, for specially invited dignitaries.

It is not known if Zuma will attend the Montecasino function, which will feature some of the best artists of the day.

They include Jonas Gwangwa, Zimbabwean musician Oliver Mtukudzi, four-times South African Music Awards winner Lira and African Footprint.

Dear Rahima,

I think it will facilitate matters if you read the documents in the order which I've marked in RED.

Document (1)Step (a) The two marked paragraphs are important.
You have the Letters of Invitation (Documents 5 &6)
You will get the numbers at the Desk.

Step (b) This is important for Mary.
Here you will have to refer to the underlined sentences
In Document No. 2 (below)

Document (2) This is from the President's office, with phone numbers etc.
The first sentence acknowledges my letter, "with details of..
.....Mary Tiseo."

The 2nd underline sentence says "your accreditations (plural) will be ready to be collected."

The 3rd sentence confirms the I will " send someone to collect the accreditations (plural again) on your behalf".

If there are problems they must phone Ms. Tshepiso Dipholo" or Lerato at the phone number as it is (on Document 2) 012 300 5252.
Or you can phone her to contact the Accreditations Office.

3 & 4. These are about Mary's passport. No. 4 is a photocopy of her Passport page.

5 & 6 These are the letter of Invitation and my response on my and Mary's behalf.
N.B. THESE ARE THE TWO THAT YOU WILL HAVE TO PRESENT
AS YOU ENTER THE OFFICE. IN EXCHANGE THEY WILL GIVE YOU NUMBERS.

Many thanks,

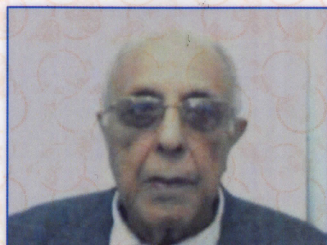

Salaams,

If necessary, you should phone me on my cell.
